The book uncovers all the details and secrets for successful life, goals, and strategic planning. Do you spend weeks at a time feeling as if you are running on a hamster wheel in circles, wondering why you don t seem to be getting anywhere? Hamster wheels need preventive maintenance and you need a little break from the wheel for your own health and sanity. Saturday Morning CEO: How two hours a week will guarantee your business and personal success in any economy, written by a proven executive level leader, consultant and college business professor, will take you through the steps necessary for forward growth and success. Saturday Morning CEO will teach you how to take the well organized and measured systems of strategic planning from larger corporations and apply them at your personal level. A weekly strategic planning meeting with yourself is the key to success. However, the elements of that meeting are just as important as having the meeting. As you...
