Homespun Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Delicious descriptions! . Ideal for those who enjoy soap-opera liaisons but also deep existential monologues. . Bohunk s Big To-Do does it brilliantly! The Windy City Times, November 03, 2015. Incredibly created through the wonderful words of the narrator. Outword Magazine, October 22, 2015. Funny, interesting, somewhat raunchy and unconventional. Vital VOICE Magazine, September 16, 2015. FEATURED as one of three summer reads in David Atlanta Magazine. August 05, 2015. Bo Mickey s wanted to run away from home ever since his mom married his boyfriend, two months back. First time out of Arizona, though, and damned if they re not both along for the ride. Worse yet, one too many sightseeing stops puts Bo in Kansas too late for a deathbed introduction to the dad he s never met. The other Mickeys - his dad s second family - put Bo and his lot up in the R.V. in the driveway to wait out the funeral. That s mighty close quarters to share, though, with the drug-damaged party girl who raised him and her new groom, a know-it-all castoff from Arizona foster care who can t shake dirty thoughts of Bo and won t keep his hands to himself. The way, too, how the second Mrs. Mickey breaks glass and whatnot up against the walls inside her house; the mean streak that oldest daughter s got: It s near about impossible to pass the time in any sort of vacation-minded way. When a little yellow notebook sends Mom into hysterics, Bo decides now s as good a time as any to make his escape. But he doesn t want to go it alone. Who will...
