Not illustrated. 1870 Excerpt: .foregoing depositions of John Doe and Richard Roe were taken before me, at my office in the city of Cincinnati, county of Hamilton, and State of Ohio, on the 10th day of November, 1859, upon the interrogatories hereto annexed--that said witnesses were each duly sworn according to law before giving their testimony--that the testimony of each of said witnesses was written by me (or if either of the witnesses wrote his own testimony, state the fact, and that it was so written in the presence of the officer), read to and subscribed by him in my presence. I further certify that at the taking of said deposition, neither party was present in person, nor represented by agent or attorney (or it both or either party attended, state the fact). John Smith, Notary Public, seal, . The deposition must be written wholly by either the officer or witness, and by no other person. When the depositions are completed, they should be sealed up in an envelope by the officer, and directed to the clerk of the proper court, with an endorsement showing they to be depositions, and the style of the case in which the are taken, and either delivered by him to the clerk, or mailed by him in person, care being taken to see that the postage is prepaid. Depositions Upon Notice.--Although depositions upon notice may be taken in narrative form, the officer or witness simply writing out the statement of the witness, yet the...
