The Grand Army of the Republic is marching, To the drum beat, as of old, Their banners gaily flying, O'er their colors of blue and gold. They have had their days of valor, And their victories brave and bold, They have done - their Country's Service, And had sorrow and woe untold. True and loyal volunteers, Who braved the cannon's mouth And gave their bleeding foot-prints, To win our Sacred South. In hunger marched; with only corn, Not even ground to meal, And died in Libby Prison, And on the battlefield. Heroes in blue with hearts so true, Our love has never faded, In cause of right, and honor bright, You ne'er will be defeated. We'll miss your stories told so oft, We'll miss your kindly faces, We'll miss you as you used to look, In patriotic places.
