

Hammar skjold: A Life

By Roger Lipsey

The University of Michigan Press. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Hammar skjold: A Life, Roger Lipsey, An admirably judicious and comprehensive - and long overdue - study of one of the most remarkable figures of the twentieth century, whose presence remains both spiritually and politically significant for an age of violently confused international relations. - Rowan Williams, Master of Magdalene College (Cambridge University), former Archbishop of Canterbury ""An important, brillaintly written book. Its wide selection of sources gives a masterful, true, and full portrait of Hammar skjold. Lipsey's learned and wise comments cobtribute much to understanding the inner life and outward actions of a unique person."" - Per Lind, Swedish Foreign Service and personal aide to Hammar skjold, 1953 - 56 ""A great book about a great man who must not be forgotten in a time which more than ever needs to see the footprints of Dag Hammar skjold - the combination of wholehearted engagement in the world and familiarity with the spiritual 'journey inwards.'"" - K.G. Hammar, Visiting professor (emeritus) at the Center for Theology and Religious Studies, Lund University, and former archbishop of the Church of Sweden "A good and indispensable man, Hammar skjold ""understood and respected the need for heroes.""
